LISTENED TO BARBER TEST FOR INSANITY

Binney Did Not Seem to Understand Haircutter's Line of Conversation.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—The question of a man's actions while seated in a barber's chair, especially his ability or inability to understand what the barber is talking about, as a basis to judge his mental condition, was brought up this morning before Judge Reginald Irwin in the contest against the probating of the will of William J. Binney.

George Schuchardt, a Media barber, testified that he often cut the hair and trimmed the beard of the testator.

"Did you talk to Mr. Binney while you were attending him?" asked counsel for Dr. Matthew V. Binney, who received a bequest of $5,000, which he is to start the contest.

"I often talked to him, but he didn't seem to understand me," replied the witness.
